

19 DAY TOUR OVERVIEW

Day	Date	Accommodation	Tour de France Race	Agenda	Meal Inclusions
Day 0	Thursday, 2 nd July	Barcelona, Spain		Recommended arrival day to rest and manage any travel delays. There's no official program , pre-tour hotel nights are not included but can be arranged. Barcelona is easily accessible via Barcelona International Airport or the Barcelona Sants Train Station , both well-connected to the city centre and the team hotel. Explore Barcelona's stunning architecture, beaches, and cycling paths while soaking in the excitement of the Tour de France Grand Départ. Staff will be available throughout the day to assist with bike assembly and hire bike introductions.	n/a
Day 1	Friday, 3 rd July	Barcelona, Spain		Cyclists can ride 25–40 km with 300–450 m of climbing, previewing Stage 1's Team Time Trial course through central Barcelona, including the Montjuïc Olympic Stadium and iconic city landmarks . Non-cycling guests can explore Barcelona's Old Town, beaches, and the Tour Start Village , enjoying pre-race festivities and rider presentations. Staff will assist with bike setup and hire bike introductions throughout the morning. The day concludes with a 3-course Catalan-inspired Welcome Dinner and drink at the Barcelona hotel.	Breakfast (Day 0 arrivals) + Welcome Dinner & Drink
Day 2	Saturday, 4 th July	Barcelona, Spain	Stage 1: Barcelona - Barcelona, 19,7km, TTT	Cyclists will ride 35–85 km, starting in Barcelona and heading south along the coast to Sitges , with an optional extended loop through the hills featuring classic roads from the Tour of Catalunya and Vuelta a España . Non-cycling guests will experience the excitement of the 2026 Tour de France Stage 1 Team Time Trial in Barcelona, enjoying both the start and finish while exploring the old town and parts of the race route between events.	Breakfast
Day 3	Sunday, 5 th July	Barcelona, Spain	Stage 2: Tarragona - Barcelona, 178km, Hilly	Cyclists will ride 50–95 km, starting early from the hotel to intercept Stage 2 of the Tour de France, then follow the race route ahead of the peloton back into Barcelona for an exciting finish. Non-cycling guests can explore the old town in the morning, transfer south to visit Sitges , and return to Barcelona in time to watch the race finish.	Breakfast + Dinner
Day 4	Monday, 6 th July	Girona, Spain	Stage 3: Granollers > Les Angles, Length 196km, Mountain	Cyclists will ride 65 km on the "Hincapie Loop" around Girona , enjoying some of the region's best roads, climbs, and viewpoints after transferring from Barcelona. Non-cycling guests can visit Granollers to experience the start of Stage 3, then transfer to Girona for a walking orientation tour, exploring the town's landmarks and enjoying a mid-exploration drink.	Breakfast
Day 5	Tuesday, 7 th July	Girona, Spain	Stage 4: Carcassonne > Foix, 182km, Hilly	Cyclists will ride 40–100 km on the Costa Brava Coastal Loop , enjoying scenic coastal roads and challenging terrain. Non-cycling guests can spend the morning exploring Girona's old town or take a vehicle transfer to discover the Costa Brava region , meeting the cycling group along the way. The day includes our 3-course Farewell Dinner and drink .	Breakfast + Farewell Dinner & Drink
Day 6	Wednesday, 8 th July	Girona, Spain (*Hotel nights non-inclusion)	Stage 5: Lannemezan > Pau, 158km, Flat	Guests will enjoy a relaxed farewell group breakfast , reflecting on the tour and discussing onward journeys. After breakfast, transfers are provided to Barcelona International Airport, Girona Airport, or Girona train station for departures. Girona is well-connected by train to major cities, including Barcelona and destinations in France, for those traveling later in the day.	Farewell Breakfast
-	Thursday, 9 th July	n/a	Stage 6: Pau > Gavarnie-Gèdre, 186km, Mountain	Free Program	n/a

-	Friday, 10 th July	n/a	Stage 7: Hagetmau > Bordeaux, 175km, Flat	Free Program	n/a
-	Saturday, 11 th July	n/a	Stage 8: Périgueux > Bergerac, 182km, Flat	Free Program	n/a
-	Sunday, 12 th July	n/a	Stage 9: Malemort > Ussel, 185km, Hilly	Free Program	n/a
-	Monday, 13 th July	n/a	Official Rest Day	Free Program	n/a
Pre-Arrival Day Part Two	Tuesday, 14 th July	Dijon Old Town Area (*Hotel nights non-inclusion)	Stage 10: Aurillac > Le Lioran 167km. Mountain	Recommended arrival day to rest and manage any travel delays. There's no official program , pre-tour hotel nights are not included but can be arranged. Dijon is easily accessible via TGV train from Paris or Lyon and the city is perfect for exploring on foot. Staff will be available throughout the day to assist with bike assembly and hire bike introductions .	n/a
Day 7	Wednesday, 15 th July	Dijon Old Town Area	Stage 11: Vichy > Nevers 161km. Flat	Non-cycling guests can explore Dijon Old Town in the morning, then take a sightseeing loop through Burgundy vineyards and villages . Cyclists can ride 35–65 km through the vineyards, pausing for photos and returning in time to watch Stage 11 live. The day ends with a Welcome Dinner and drink .	Welcome Breakfast + Welcome dinner & drink
Day 8	Thursday, 16 th July	Dijon Old Town Area	Stage 12: Magny Cours – Chalon sur Saône, 181km, Flat	Non-cycling guests can transfer to Chalon-sur-Saône to explore the town and watch Stage 12 finish live. Cyclists can ride 35–95 km through the region, including the TDF finishing circuit ahead of the pros. Evening is free to explore Dijon .	Breakfast
Day 9	Friday, 17 th July	Mulhouse Old Town Area	Stage 13: Dole – Belfort, 205km, Hilly	Non-cycling guests can transfer from Dijon to Belfort , explore the town, and watch Stage 13 finish live. Cyclists can ride 40–125 km , tackling the Ballon d'Alsace climb and joining the TDF stage finish, with an optional transfer back to the hotel. The day concludes with a 3-course dinner in Mulhouse.	Breakfast + Dinner
Day 10	Saturday, 18 th July	Mulhouse Old Town Area	Stage 14: Mulhouse - The Markstein Felling, 155km, Mountain	Non-cycling guests can see the TDF stage start in Mulhouse and watch the race near the Le Markstein finish . Cyclists can ride 40–120 km along the race route, stopping to watch the riders pass the Col du Haag summit . The day concludes with breakfast and a 3-course dinner with drinks at the Mulhouse hotel.	Breakfast + Dinner & Drink
Day 11	Sunday, 19 th July	Lake Geneva Region	TDF Stage 15: Champagnole – Plateau de Solaison, 184km, Mountain.	Transfer to the Lake Geneva region . Non-cycling guests can enjoy the transfer and watch the race at a strategic midpoint. Cyclists can ride 25–80 km through the scenic Jura region , following part of the race route and seeing the Tour live.	Breakfast + Dinner
Day 12	Monday, 20 th July	Lake Geneva Region	Official Rest Day	Non-cycling guests can explore Geneva and enjoy a Belle Epoque boat cruise on Lake Geneva. Cyclists can ride 40–100 km through the scenic Jura and Lake Geneva region , with 450–1800m of climbing .	Breakfast
Day 13	Tuesday, 21 st July	Lake Geneva Region	TDF Stage 16: Evian Les Bains – Thonon Les Bains, 26km, ITT	Non-cycling guests can watch the stage start and finish of the individual time trial. Cyclists can ride 40–80 km from the hotel along Lake Geneva , following the Evian–Thonon Les Bains route and seeing the race live.	Breakfast + Dinner & Drink
Day 14	Wednesday, 22 nd July	French Alps Region	TDF Stage 17: Chambery – Voiron, 175km, Flat	Transfer from Lake Geneva to the Alps . Non-cycling guests can see the stage start in Chambery . Cyclists can ride 30–100 km on the racecourse , including the stage start, with 400–1700m of climbing .	Breakfast + Dinner

Day 15	Thursday, 23 rd July	French Alps Region	TDF Stage 18: Voirion – Orcières Merlette, 185km, Mountain.	Non-cycling guests can explore the Alps , including the Col du Télégraphe and Col du Galibier . Cyclists can ride 30–100 km with 100–2400m of climbing , tackling the Col du Télégraphe and Col du Galibier .	Breakfast
Day 16	Friday, 24 th July	French Alps Region	TDF Stage 19: Gap – Alpe d’Huez, 128km, Mountain.	Non-cycling guests can visit Alpe d’Huez and watch the Tour de France stage there. Cyclists can ride 30–80 km , tackling 300–2000m of climbing and riding Alpe d’Huez ahead of the race .	Breakfast + Dinner
Day 17	Saturday, 25 th July	Paris, France	TDF Stage 20: Le Bourg d’Oisans – Alpe d’Huez, 171km, Mountains.	Transfer towards Paris . Non-cycling guests enjoy the Chartreuse Mountains and river valley en route. Cyclists can ride 30–70 km with 300m climbing , exploring the Chartreuse region before joining the afternoon bus transfer to Paris .	Breakfast
Day 18	Sunday, 26 th July	Paris, France	TDF Stage 21: Mantes-La-Ville – Paris, Champs-Élysées, 130km.	Non-cycling guests can explore Paris and watch the Tour de France at Montmartre or the Champs-Élysées finish . Cyclists can ride 20–40 km early morning along the race route , passing Paris highlights before returning to the hotel for breakfast. VIP finish line tickets are available on request.	Breakfast + Farewell Dinner & Drink
Day 19	Monday, 27 th July	Paris, France (*Hotel nights non-inclusion)	-	Celebrate the Tour de France over a nice, relaxed farewell group breakfast. See itinerary for transfer options .	Farewell Breakfast